

A            E        D        A

We'll do it all, everything, on our own.

A            E            D        A

We don't need anything, or anyone.

A                            E

If I lay here, if I just lay here

D                            A

Would you lie with me, and just forget the world.

A            E        D        A

I don't quite know how to say how I feel

A            E            D        A

Those three words, I said too much, but not enough.

A                            E

If I lay here, if I just lay here

D                            A

Would you lie with me, and just forget the world.

A                            E

Forget what we're told, before we get too old

D                            A

Show me a garden that's bursting into life.

A            E        D        A

Let's waste time, chasing cars, around our heads.

A            E        D        A

I need your grace to remind me, to find my own.

A                            E

If I lay here, if I just lay here

D                            A

Would you lie with me, and just forget the world.

A                            E

Forget what we're told, before we get too old

D                            A

Show me a garden that's bursting into life.

A                            E

All that I am, all that I ever was

D                            A

Is here in your perfect eyes, they're all I can see

A                            E

I don't know where, confused about how as well

D                            A

just know that these things will never change for us at all.

A                            E

If I lay here, if I just lay here

D                            A

Would you lie with me, and just forget the world.
